Honoring Women Worldwide Mission:

Mobilizing, inspiring, and honoring women and families from all cultures to lead and succeed.

Join our remarkable panel as we discuss the real conversations women need to have to change the tide of hatred and fear that prevails in our world.

What courageous conversations do we need to have to create a collective consciousness that inspires women to break through the current paternalistic and hierarchical norms? How do we dare have the dialogue that helps us step forward with our voices to demonstrate honor, respect and understanding for each other's cultures and be role models for our daughters and sons?

You'll have an opportunity to network, make new connections, participate in small groups and learn new ways to have daring dialogue and real conversations. You'll leave inspired by the new friends you've made, unique ideas you've gained and innovative strategies to take action.
